for Aspiring School Leaders

This dynamic and interactive learning series is designed for educators who are considering, or preparing for, formal leadership roles. Grounded in the BCPVPA Leadership Competencies, Explorations for Aspiring Leaders offers a focused and supportive environment where emerging leaders can deepen their understanding of school leadership and expand their professional capacity.

Through four Saturday morning sessions, participants will explore essential leadership mindsets and practices:

Day 1 – January 09, 2027

Growing Capacity of Self and Others

Delve into Leading Change and developing a Fiduciary Mindset that inspires trust and stewardship.

Day 2 – January 30, 2027

Stewardship for the Future of All Children

Explore how to shape positive learning environments through Culture Building and fostering Psychological Safety.

Day 3 – February 20, 2027

Fostering Curiosity & Inquiry

Engage with Data-Driven Dialogue and create space for Professional Growth in your learning community.

Day 4 – March 6, 2027

Contextual Literacy & Agency

Build leadership agility through Consensus Building and deepen your understanding of the Role of the BCPVPA.

A throughline of Bridging Policy and Practice connects all four sessions, helping participants translate leadership theory into meaningful action.
