BC Teachers' Council

BCPSEA is a full-service employers' association and is the accredited bargaining agent for the province's 60 public boards of education, for unionized teaching and support staff in the British Columbia K-12 public education system.

BCSTA serves and supports their members, BC's boards of education, in their key work of improving student achievement.

BCSSA enables their members to be visionary leaders of public education by supporting their individual professional development and by representing their collective wisdom and interests.

The BC Association of School Business Officials (BCASBO) is a member-driven organization dedicated to providing membership value, advocating for members, and building relationships.

BCCPAC represents the parents of children attending BC public schools, and engages, empowers, and supports parents for the success of all learners through collaboration, partnership and education.

CUPE BC represents more than 30,000 education workers including education assistants, school secretaries, custodians/caretakers, Indigenous support workers, IT workers, Strong Start facilitators, trades and maintenance workers, and bus drivers.

The British Columbia Teachers' Federation (BCTF) is the union of professionals representing 45,000 public school teachers in BC. All public school teachers belong to the BCTF and their local teachers' association.

The FNSA represents and works on behalf of First Nations controlled schools in BC, supporting those schools in creating effective, nurturing, and linguistically and culturally appropriate education environments for students.

The First Nations Education Steering Committee (FNESC) is a policy and advocacy organization that represents and works on behalf of First Nations in British Columbia. FNESC has a mandate to support First Nations students and advance First Nations education in BC.

Who's Who?

In BC's Education Sector
