BC Principals' & Vice-Principals' Association (BCPVPA) Introduces 2026 – 2027 Board of Directors

(VANCOUVER, BC) Tuesday June 30, 2026 – On July 1, the BC Principals' & Vice-Principals' Association (BCPVPA) welcomes our 2026-2027 Board of Directors, representing school and district-based educational leaders in the province's K-12 public school system.

Sid Jawanda (SD57, Prince George) will begin his role as the 2026-2028 BCPVPA President, and we warmly thank Dr. Shannon Behan (SD47, qathet) as she concludes her presidency on June 30 and continues her work on the Board as Past-President.

The 2026-2027 Directors of the Board are:

|                 |                           |
|-----------------|---------------------------|
| Jackie Borosa   | (SD64, Gulf Islands)      |
| Lisa Frey       | (SD68, Nanaimo-Ladysmith) |
| Sarah Garr      | (SD61, Greater Victoria)  |
| Kelly Johansen  | (SD57, Prince George)     |
| Iram Khan       | (SD43, Coquitlam)         |
| Brian Leonard   | (SD43, Coquitlam)         |
| Paul Marsden    | (SD36, Surrey)            |
| Trevor Robinson | (SD67, Okanagan Skaha)    |
| Navshina Savory | (SD38, Richmond)          |
| Bryn Williams   | (SD43, Coquitlam)         |

We extend our sincere thanks and appreciation to the members who served on the BCPVPA's 2025-2026 Board of Directors. The incoming Board will lead the transition to the BCPVPA's 2026-2030 Strategic Plan this fall, with its continuing focus on the goals of employment equity; leadership development; reconciliation, equity, diversity, and inclusion (REDI) championship; member health; and representation of our members' voices and perspectives in the sector and beyond.

The Board looks forward to ongoing collaboration with the Ministry of Education and Child Care and our many valued education sector partners as we work together to empower every BC student to reach their individual potential and thrive in safe and caring school communities.
