June and Summer Transitions for Principals & Vice-Principals: Some Tips

For many Principals and Vice-Principals, June is a time for professional transitions.

It is quite common for a Principal or Vice-Principal to be leaving their school or worksite for a new assignment, or possibly even for retirement. It is also quite common that a Principal or Vice-Principal might be welcoming a new member to their administrative team during the summer months.

For those who are in that situation, or interested in the associated strategies, we invite you to review the November 2020 Principle(d) article: The Delicate and Intentional Art of Transitions for Principals and Vice-Principals
